

ROWTON HOTEL

BIRMINGHAM

The Rowton Hotel has welcomed guests through its doors since the Victorian era. Hospitality has been the mark of this building for so long it is as much a part of the architecture as the beautiful Gothic features themselves. A recent renovation and restoration programme, including the exquisite Rowton Suite which can now host parties of 550 and boasts a bespoke carpet reflecting the distinctive brick work of the building, elegant chandeliers, and a glamorous bar area, has been as much about celebrating the grand scale of the building as it is about creating a beautiful new interior. The Westminster and Moseley Suites are not only functional but elegant, making even the most corporate of events a pleasure.
